Todd,

The financials are ridiculous. Uncategorized expenses of more than $200k in first 5 months.

Todd,

Attached please find the 2012 and 2013 tax returns for Asyntria Inc. I understand that the company has filed for an extension for the 2014 return and it is not due until October. The current estimate for 2014 is a 360K loss on gross income of $1.45M. I have also attached P&L and Balance Sheet for the company prepared by Mr. Johnston. I understand that it an updated version of what your clients received in March of this year.

Let me know if you hear anything about Mr. Meigs participation.

Best regards,

Allen Brady
